

Your Complete Guide to the Glitter Challenge

October 2026 - April 2027

Transform your leadership through comedy

The Glitter Challenge is Funny Women's unique personal development journey that pairs you with professional comedians, comedy writers, and performance experts. You will develop your voice, build confidence, and ultimately perform live on stage, all supported by a dedicated community and top-tier mentorship.

In addition to investing in yourself, The Glitter Challenge is also about helping other women find their voices: funds raised after costs support The Glitter Project, Funny Women's outreach initiative providing a safe and supportive space for women to develop confidence and creativity through humour.

Bootcamps, Workshops & Peer Support

1. Dedicated Mentorship & Coaching

- Personal Mentor: You will be paired with an assigned Funny Women mentor - a professional comedian, writer, or creator.
- 10 Hours of 1-on-1 Coaching: Personalised support from across the mentor network to use based on your individual development goals.
- Online Group Check-ins: Regular Monday evening sessions for peer feedback, group coaching, and momentum building.

2. In-Person Bootcamps (London)

- Mentor-led Bootcamps: Deep-dive development sessions focusing on writing, performance practice, and stagecraft led by our mentoring team and guest facilitators. Monthly from January 2027.

3. Exclusive access to programmed Funny Women online courses and in-person workshops during the Challenge period

- Stand Up to Stand Out: Saturday 14th November 2026 | 11.00am - 1.00pm at The Groucho Club, London
- Stand Up to Stand Out Winter Warm Up: Saturday 6th February 2027 | 10.00am – 5.00pm at The Groucho Club, London
- Priority access to additional Funny Women workshops as new dates are announced.

4. Community & Behind-the-Scenes Support

- Cohort WhatsApp Group: A private channel to share ideas, ask questions, and build lasting professional connections.
- Dedicated Project Team: Full operational support behind the scenes to ensure your experience runs smoothly from day one.

5. Showcases & Performance Opportunities

- Live Showcase Preview: A practice run-through at a central London venue.
- Practice Gigs: opportunities provided to try out your material at supportive comedy nights.
- The Final Showcase: Live performance at the iconic Comedy Store London on Wednesday 14th April 2027 at 7.30pm.

6. Marketing & Promotion

- Bespoke Promotional Materials: Professional marketing assets provided by our team.
- Featured Promotion: Reach across the Funny Women website and social media networks to showcase your journey.

Pricing

Details	Investment
Early-Bird Rate	£2,500 + VAT (if booked and paid in full before 31st October 2026)
Standard Rate	£3,000 + VAT (after 31st October 2026 - terms available)
Tax & Terms	Tax-deductible professional development expense. Invoices provided; flexible payment terms available upon request.

Additional Information

To help you plan ahead, please note what is not included in the programme fee:

- Travel and accommodation costs to and from in-person events
- Food and drink during workshops or showcases
- Complimentary guest tickets for showcase events (ticket booking details will be provided in advance)

Ready to Take the Stage?

Contact us to confirm your place, request an invoice, or ask any questions about the schedule. The Early-Bird Rate closes 31st October 2026 and the fee must be paid in full. Thereafter the Standard Rate can be paid in instalments as agreed with our finance team.

Please reach out to our team at info@funnywomen.com and we will arrange a phone call with one of our producers.